History

The Philippine Global Media Group (PGMG) was founded in November 2023 by Manny Ilagan, Val G. Abelgas, Lydia Solis, and Nimfa Rueda. Established as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit media organization, PGMG was created to unite media practitioners, elevate journalistic standards, and strengthen the Filipino community through responsible journalism and storytelling.

Since its founding, PGMG has:

- Covered community events globally.
- Supported cultural and civic initiatives, including the renaming of the Echo Park Library to the Carlos Bulosan Library.
- Launched the Manny Ilagan Memorial Scholarship Program to support Filipino journalism and mass communication students.
- Expanded its mission through print, digital, and multimedia platforms to serve Filipino communities worldwide.

Mission

PGMG's mission is to use media as a bridge by:

- Connecting people and communities.
- Preserving Filipino culture and heritage.
- Promoting truth through responsible journalism.
- Giving visibility to the voices, stories, and contributions of Filipinos around the world.

The organization is guided by three core principles:

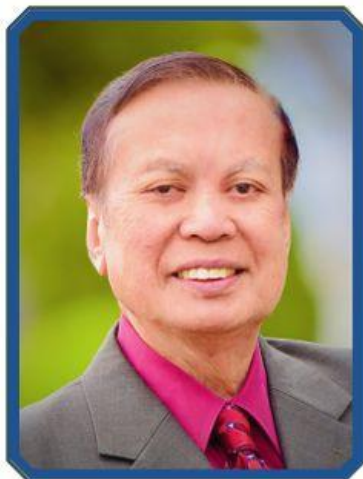

- Inform – Deliver accurate, relevant, and meaningful news and information.
- Connect – Strengthen relationships among Filipino communities worldwide.
- Uplift – Inspire, empower, and celebrate Filipino achievements through impactful storytelling.

Vision

PGMG envisions becoming the voice of Filipino communities worldwide, fostering a globally connected Filipino community through authentic journalism, cultural storytelling, and civic engagement.

Its long-term vision is to:

- Amplify Filipino voices on a global scale.
- Preserve Filipino heritage for future generations.
- Encourage civic participation and community leadership.
- Build a trusted media platform that informs, inspires, and unites Filipinos everywhere.

President's MESSAGE

On behalf of our Philippine Global Media Group, I'd like to convey my heartfelt thanks to our honored guests, dignitaries and sponsors who are participating in our Induction Ball, Gala Night and 3rd Anniversary Celebration. Your presence tonight is heartwarming. It affirms our partnership in community building. It's also a testament that our role as members of the Fourth Estate is valued.

When I was first invited by two of the founding fathers and stalwarts of our organization: Founding Board Chairman Manny Ilagan and Founding President Val G. Abelgas, I envisioned my role only as a foot soldier to carry out orders and fulfill missions whatever are assigned to me. I immediately got down to brass tacks. We registered our organization as a public benefit and 501 C-3 tax-exempt nonprofit corporation.

Thereafter, I filled the roles as secretary doubling as compliance officer. Upon the untimely passing of my fraternity Brod Manny, I assumed the role as board chairman. After three years, I am thrust into this leadership role and awesome responsibility. I'm humbled.

Among our early accomplishments are: Providing a supplemental scholarship grant to a college-bound student and joining the move to rename the Echo Park branch of the Los Angeles Library to Carlos S. Bulosan Library in Los Angeles Historic Filipino Town. This is now under consideration by the City of Los Angeles.

We also launched the book, "California: A Philippine Territory Almost" authored by our board member and editor-in-chief of Philippine News Today, Alfred G. Gabot as a tribute to the famous Filipino writer, minority rights fighter and labor union activist Carlos S. Bulosan known for his book, "America is in the Heart."

As journalists, we can shape public opinion for the betterment of our community in both our adoptive country and in the homeland. We can communicate our observations about the global Filipino diaspora. We are here to listen, to inspire, to illuminate, to enlighten, to empower and engage productively.

As part of our community engagement in our vibrant community, we participated during the recent Philippine Heritage Baseball Game Night. Our compatriot comedian Jo Koy threw the first ceremonial pitch. It also brings to mind when the Dodger Organization invited me as then president of the now-defunct Filipino-American Press Club in 1991 to throw the ceremonial first pitch along with another community leader. This just manifested that our Filipino-American community is to be reckoned with. That our mainstream American institutions also recognize our strength and presence.

Another historical milestone is the election of three council members to the City Council of Cerritos who are of Filipino heritage. There are also other Filipino-Americans who are now occupying elected positions in both the state and local governments. We have planted the seeds and these seeds are now bearing fruits. This is community building at its best.

Chairman of the Board's MESSAGE

Val G. Abelgas

Chairman of the Board
2026 - 2028

*“Uniting Filipinos,
Empowering Voices,
Inspiring Global Impact”*

Greetings!

Thank you for joining us in this momentous event in the young life of the Philippine Global Media Group.

I'm happy to turn over the mantle of leadership of this group that hopes to contribute in its own way to the hopes of Filipinos here in our adopted country to achieve the political and economic empowerment our community richly deserves. To be able to do that, we felt that we, as journalists, needed to bind together and set goals on how we can help the Filipino community become an even more relevant and important part of American society.

Tonight, my longtime colleague and friend Dan E. Nino takes over as president and I'm confident that he will bring the PGMG closer to achieving our lofty goals. Besieged by rising costs and dwindling revenues caused by the advent of the internet, community newspapers are ailing. Filipino newspapers that continue to survive are forced to reduce the number of pages and copies, while many are forced to either shut down or stop printing and stay digital. They all need our support.

Even some Filipino organizations have died natural deaths because the aging members failed to inspire the young generation to embrace the history and culture of their home country, the Philippines, so that they could continue to lead their parents' Filipino organizations.

That's where PGMG hopes to help. We plan to imbibe, through our publications and writings, love for the Philippines, help the young generation understand and love the rich history and heritage of the Homeland, so that they can take the mantle of leadership of the Filipino community from their parents and grandparents.

On this note, let me wish you all an enjoyable and meaningful evening.

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
LOS ANGELES

MESSAGE

On behalf of the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles, I extend my warmest congratulations to the Philippine Global Media Group (PGMG) on the occasion of its Induction of Officers and Board of Directors on 8 August 2026 at the Sheraton Cerritos Hotel.

This day marks the beginning of a new chapter for PGMG. As your newly elected officers and Board of Directors take on the responsibility of leading the organization, I hope this occasion brings renewed energy and an even stronger commitment to serving the Filipino-American community through responsible journalism and community engagement.

The Philippine Consulate General commends PGMG for its dedication to telling the stories of our kababayan, celebrating their achievements, and keeping our community informed and connected. In today's rapidly changing media landscape, organizations like yours help foster understanding, encourage dialogue, and preserve the rich heritage that unites Filipinos across generations.

As you move forward under your new leadership, may you continue to uphold the values of integrity, professionalism, and public service. I am confident that PGMG will continue to grow, inspire greater civic participation, and strengthen the enduring ties between the Philippines and the United States, while bringing the Filipino American community closer together.

I wish the Philippine Global Media Group every success in the years ahead and extend my best wishes for a memorable induction ceremony.

August 8, 2026

Distinguished Executive Team and Board Members:

On behalf of the City of Cerritos and the Cerritos City Council, we extend our collective thanks and share our support to the membership of the Philippine Global Media Group (PGMG), on this 3rd anniversary of your foundation as part of the PGMG's 2nd Induction Ball, held inside the beautiful Crystal Ballroom of Sheraton Hotel Cerritos.

Your work across print, broadcast, and digital media provides quality information to the Filipino and broader community within Southern California and beyond. Together, you uplift the journalistic and ethical standards among media professionals throughout the region. Thank you for your commitment to informing readers with trustworthy news across the community and in the Homeland.

On this induction evening, the City of Cerritos congratulates the PGMG's fourteen Board Members and Executive Team, which includes Val G. Abelgas, Chairman and Outgoing President, Incoming President Dan Estabillo Nino, Vice Presidents Lydia V. Solis, Nimfa U. Rueda, Jannelle So-Perkins; Secretary Donna Gatdula-Arevalo, Treasurer Meg Ilagan, Auditor Rick Gavino, and PROs Ellen Rodriguez-Swing and Joe T. Cobilla, Jr. Officers will be sworn in by Philippine Consul General to Los Angeles Adelio Angelito S. Cruz, whom is credited for his service to the Filipino community and partnership with PGMG and the City of Cerritos.

Congratulations to the Philippine Global Media Group team! May your continued service spark community dialog, strengthen engagement, and create a more informed public.

A LEGACY OF FILIPINO JOURNALISM, UNITED FOR THE FUTURE

THE STORY OF THE PHILIPPINE GLOBAL MEDIA GROUP (PGMG) BEGAN LONG BEFORE ITS OFFICIAL INCORPORATION. FOR YEARS, RESPECTED FILIPINO JOURNALISTS, PUBLISHERS, BROADCASTERS, AND MEDIA PRACTITIONERS ACROSS SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WORKED INDEPENDENTLY TO KEEP THE FILIPINO COMMUNITY INFORMED, CONNECTED, AND INSPIRED. THEY CHRONICLED MILESTONES, CELEBRATED ACHIEVEMENTS, AND GAVE A VOICE TO STORIES THAT MATTERED.

THE OLD PHOTOGRAPHS FEATURED ON THIS PAGE CAPTURE THOSE EARLY YEARS OF COLLABORATION—MEDIA FORUMS, COMMUNITY GATHERINGS, AND NETWORKING EVENTS WHERE VETERAN JOURNALISTS AND PUBLISHERS CAME TOGETHER WITH A COMMON PURPOSE: TO STRENGTHEN FILIPINO MEDIA AND PRESERVE THE STORIES OF OUR PEOPLE.

THESE INFORMAL COLLABORATIONS EVENTUALLY EVOLVED INTO A SHARED VISION.

IN NOVEMBER 2023, DISTINGUISHED MEDIA LEADERS MANNY ILAGAN, VAL G. ABELGAS, LYDIA SOLIS, AND NIMFA RUEDA FORMALLY ESTABLISHED THE PHILIPPINE GLOBAL MEDIA GROUP (PGMG) AS A 501(C)(3) NONPROFIT MEDIA ORGANIZATION. THEIR VISION WAS SIMPLE YET POWERFUL—TO UNITE FILIPINO MEDIA PROFESSIONALS UNDER ONE ORGANIZATION DEDICATED TO EXCELLENCE IN JOURNALISM, ETHICAL REPORTING, COMMUNITY SERVICE, AND CULTURAL PRESERVATION.

SINCE ITS FOUNDING, PGMG HAS STEADILY GROWN INTO A RESPECTED NETWORK OF VETERAN JOURNALISTS, PUBLISHERS, BROADCASTERS, WRITERS, PHOTOGRAPHERS, AND MEDIA ADVOCATES COMMITTED TO SERVING FILIPINO COMMUNITIES NOT ONLY IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BUT AROUND THE WORLD.

TODAY, PGMG CONTINUES TO PRESERVE THE LEGACY OF FILIPINO JOURNALISM WHILE INSPIRING THE NEXT GENERATION OF STORYTELLERS.

CONTINUING THE LEGACY THROUGH JOURNALISM AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

THE STORY OF THE PHILIPPINE GLOBAL MEDIA GROUP IS STILL BEING WRITTEN—ONE ARTICLE, ONE EVENT, AND ONE ACT OF SERVICE AT A TIME. WHAT BEGAN AS A VISION TO UNITE FILIPINO MEDIA PROFESSIONALS HAS GROWN INTO A DYNAMIC ORGANIZATION COMMITTED NOT ONLY TO REPORTING THE NEWS BUT ALSO TO CREATING MEANINGFUL CHANGE WITHIN THE COMMUNITY.

EVERY PGMG GATHERING REFLECTS THIS SHARED PURPOSE. VETERAN JOURNALISTS, PUBLISHERS, BROADCASTERS, WRITERS, AND MEDIA ADVOCATES COME TOGETHER TO EXCHANGE IDEAS, PLAN INITIATIVES, AND COLLABORATE ON PROJECTS THAT UPLIFT THE FILIPINO COMMUNITY. THESE MEETINGS ARE MORE THAN ORGANIZATIONAL SESSIONS—THEY ARE OPPORTUNITIES TO STRENGTHEN FRIENDSHIPS, PRESERVE THE VALUES OF ETHICAL JOURNALISM, AND INSPIRE ONE ANOTHER TO CONTINUE SERVING WITH INTEGRITY.

CONTINUING THE LEGACY THROUGH JOURNALISM AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

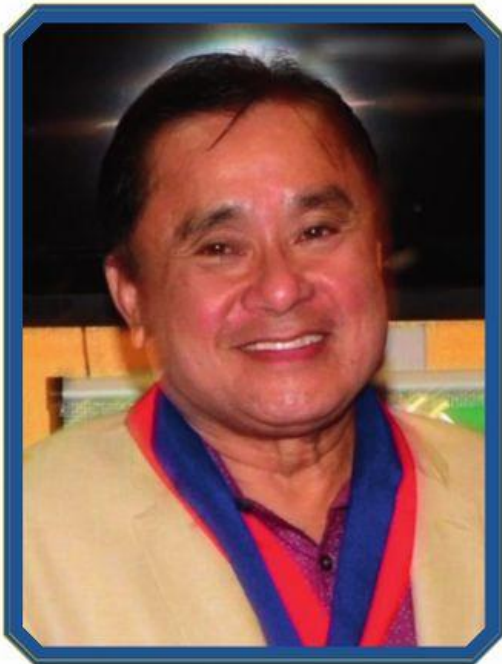

PGMG CONTINUES TO DOCUMENT THE STORIES THAT MATTER—CELEBRATING ACHIEVEMENTS, PRESERVING FILIPINO HERITAGE, PROMOTING CIVIC ENGAGEMENT, AND GIVING A VOICE TO THE COMMUNITY THROUGH RESPONSIBLE JOURNALISM. THROUGH PRINT, DIGITAL, AND MULTIMEDIA PLATFORMS, THE ORGANIZATION CONNECTS FILIPINOS AROUND THE WORLD WHILE ENSURING THAT FUTURE GENERATIONS REMAIN INFORMED, INSPIRED, AND PROUD OF THEIR ROOTS.

AS PGMG CONTINUES TO GROW, IT ALSO WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS WHO SHARE ITS PASSION FOR TRUTH, SERVICE, AND STORYTELLING. TOGETHER, THE ORGANIZATION IS BUILDING A LASTING LEGACY—ONE THAT HONORS THE PIONEERS OF FILIPINO MEDIA WHILE EMPOWERING THE NEXT GENERATION TO CARRY THE TORCH OF JOURNALISM WITH EXCELLENCE, INTEGRITY, AND HEART.

IN MEMORIAM

HONORING THE LEGACY OF

Emmanuel "Manny" Ilagan

DECEMBER 24, 1954 - JULY 1, 2024

VISIONARY • COMMUNITY LEADER • PHILANTHROPIST

Emmanuel "Manny" Ilagan was a respected community leader, travel writer and tourism professional who dedicated much of his life to promoting the Philippines and serving the Filipino American community.

He served as Tourism Director under the Philippine Consulate General in Los Angeles, led the Philippine Association of Travel Agents in the Los Angeles area and contributed travel and tourism articles to the Asian Journal. He was also a member of the Press Photographers Association of Los Angeles, Alpha Phi Omega International Collegiate Service Fraternity and the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of California.

In 2023, Manny co-founded the Philippine Global Media Group and served as its founding Chairman of the Board until his passing on July 1, 2024. His wife, Margaret "Meg" Ilagan, continued his legacy by remaining active in PGMG leadership.

To honor Manny's lifelong commitment to journalism, tourism and community service, PGMG established the Manny Ilagan Memorial Scholarship Program, supporting and inspiring future generations of journalists and media professionals.

THE MANNY ILAGAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Established in honor of Manny Ilagan's lifelong commitment to journalism, tourism, and community service, the Manny Ilagan Memorial Scholarship Program was created to support and inspire the next generation of Filipino journalists and media professionals.

The scholarship reflects Manny's belief in the power of truthful journalism, education, and community engagement to create lasting impact. Through this initiative, PGMG continues his mission by providing opportunities for aspiring communicators to develop their talents, pursue excellence, and serve their communities with integrity and purpose.

May Manny Ilagan's legacy continue to inspire future generations to lead with passion, serve with compassion, and tell stories that make a difference.

Protect What Matters Most: Why Life Insurance is a Smart Move

Life is full of unexpected moments—joys, challenges, and everything in between. While we can't predict the future, we can plan for it. That's where life insurance steps in.

What to consider?

- Your family's lifestyle and financial goals
- Outstanding debts and future expenses
- Coverage amount and policy type
- Flexibility as your life changes

Don't leave your family's future to chance.
Take control today by choosing a life insurance policy that truly fits your life.

Congratulations

YOUR SIGNATURE CAN REUNITE FAMILIES

Support the Family Caregiver Visa Advocacy
Scan the QR and sign our petition

Los Angeles – On April 4, a signature campaign was launched to urge members of the United States Congress to pass the Family Caregiver Act, which aims to address the growing caregiving crisis. The accompanying letter emphasizes that families across the country are struggling to care for aging parents, loved ones with Alzheimer's, and individuals with disabilities or chronic illnesses. This proposal would allow families to legally sponsor trusted caregivers, ensuring that their loved ones can receive care at home. Translations in various languages have also been prepared and will be distributed to the respective communities.

The proposed Family Caregiver Visa Act of 2026 seeks to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to establish a nonimmigrant visa. This visa would permit qualified family caregivers to enter the United States temporarily to provide essential care for family members with significant health or functional needs. The introduction of the Family Caregiver nonimmigrant visa supports the fundamental principle of the Immigration Reform Act of 1965, which emphasizes "family reunification."

Therefore, Section 101 of the Immigration and Nationality Act would be amended to include the classification (FC) for the Family Caregiver Visa.

"A nonimmigrant visa shall be available to a qualified foreign national who is a relative of a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident for the purpose of providing caregiving assistance to a family member residing in the U.S. who requires substantial help with activities of daily living."

Excerpt from Philippine Post article, April 6, 2026

Earlier, Councilwoman Ysabel Jurado informed Perla that she supports the proposed idea and plans to present it to the City Council. The group is implementing three main strategies: initiating a signature campaign, lobbying members of Congress, and forming a coalition with organizations that share similar concerns about this issue. They have scheduled virtual meetings with the legislative staff of Representative Laura Friedman on April 10 and Senator Adam Schiff on April 15. Previously, the group met with the legislative staff of Ted Lieu in Santa Monica.

The group is implementing three main strategies with the goal of: initiating a signature campaign aimed at gathering 50,000 signatures; lobbying members of Congress, and forming a coalition with organizations that share similar concerns about this issue. They have scheduled virtual meetings with the legislative staff of Representative Laura Friedman on April 10 and Senator Adam Schiff on April 15. Previously, the group met with the legislative staff of Ted Lieu in Santa Monica.

Any form of support – signatures, collaboration, suggestions, and recommendations from everyone to join the bandwagon is greatly appreciated.
